

IN THE HIGH COURT OF GUJARAT AT AHMEDABAD

FIRST APPEAL NO.2105 TO 2128 OF 1995

THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE Y.B. BHATT:

1. Whether Reporters of Local Papers may be allowed to see the judgement?
2. To be referred to the Reporter or not?
3. Whether their Lordships wish to see the fair copy of the judgement?
4. Whether this case involves a substantial question of law as to the interpretation of the Constitution of India, 1950 or any order made thereunder?
5. Whether it is to be circulated to the Civil Judge?

CORAM: Y.B. BHATT J.

DATE: 15-02-1996

Appearance:

Mr. M.R. Anand, Senior counsel with Mr. L.R. Pujari, advocate for the appellants.

Mr. A.J. Patel, advocate for the respondents.

COMMON JUDGEMENT

1. Heard the learned counsel for the respective parties. Admitted. Mr. A.J. Patel waives service on behalf of each of the respondents in this group of matters. At the request of learned counsel for the parties this group is taken up for final hearing today.

2. After discussion of the impugned awards in the present group of matters, it transpires that there is no controversy that the facts of the case and all relevant factors which would govern the determination of the fair and reasonable market value in the present group of matters, have already been decided by an earlier decision of this court (Coram: S.D. Shah J.) dated 7th November 1995 in First Appeal Nos.5606/95 to 5618/95.

3. In the premises aforesaid the impugned award under section 18 of the said Act, awarding Rs.10/- per square meter to the concerned claimants is required to be upheld. Hence the present group of appeals is dismissed with no order as to costs.

4. The appellant is directed to deposit the entire amount of compensation together with costs and interest in each separate Reference in the District Court latest by 3rd May 1996.
